Dear Demetrios and Lee-Anne

Defamation Appeal - Comments online relating to Justice Kyrou

Further to the hearing for judgment last Friday 24 July 2015 before Chief Justice Marilyn Warren, Justice Ashley and Justice Digby, we would like to remind you of the closing cautionary words of Warren CJ. Namely, that it has come to court's attention that you have been making statements on the internet in relation to Justice Emiliios Kyrou.

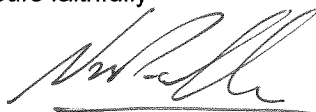

We believe Warren CJ was referring to the complaint you made in an email dated 21st July 2014 regarding the conduct of Justice Kyrou and the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court sent to Attorney General Robert Clark and other third parties. We would urge you to refrain from sending any similar letters or emails and from making any comments about Justice Kyrou and the Chief Justice online.

We are very concerned that the contents of this material or further publication of similar material may expose you to contempt proceedings.

As noted in our letter to you on 28 July 2014, the contents of the email regarding the Chief Justice and Justice Kyrou may provide sufficient grounds for contempt of court on the basis of scandalising the court. The consequences of this are very serious.

We impress upon you the importance of making no further comment regarding the conduct of Justice Kyrou or any other member of the Victorian judiciary and from posting anything on the internet that is similar to your previous emails.

Yours faithfully
